Things to Try!

Trail your fingers around and over your vulva. Flutter your fingers lightly from place to place.

Tug, pull, and rub your labia.

Circle your fingers around and over your clit. Give it a couple quick pat!

Press and pull on the skin around your vulva to make it taut.

Try slipping a finger or two inside your vagina.

Later on, try adding a sex toy to your masturbation! They can bring a completely new sensation that you can't experience with just your hands.

Things to Try!

Stroke the shaft of your penis with different pressures and speeds. Try mixing up your grip or switch hands.

Whack it against your palm or give it some gentle bend.

If you have a foreskin, play with it. Slip a wet finger between it and the glans.

Switch things up and avoid constantly masturbating with a tight hard grip, as it can make it harder to climax in the future.

Try a sex toy for bonus fun. Vibes and strokers are awesome!

”So far, I hope I’ve sold this LBGT* thing pretty well. I mean, it does sound brilliant, doesn’t it? You get to dress how you like and make out with whomever you want.

It’s hip and trendy (just as Zachary Quinto, Andreja Pejic, or Angel Haze). You get to be part of an avan-garde subculture with links to art, music, and fashion.”

Pages 115, 156-160: Sex Apps

” You may come to establish that gay and bi men in particular do seem to quite like sex. OK, nearly everyone likes sex, but gay guys really seem to have cornered the market. ...Gay and bi men have taken to app sex like ducks to sexy water.

...”The benefits are obvious: quick, easy, and uncomplicated sex. ...”I’ve met a variety of interesting people through (sex apps). They are predominantly use for sex though. They’re sold to us as ‘social networking’ apps, but we all know what they’re really for. It’s a bit like selling a dildo under the pretext that it’s sole use is a draft excluder. I don’t have a problem with that aspect of it- if people want casual sex, then something like Grindr is a must...

If you’re THAT HORNY that you want to do a “sex meet,” meet the “trick” in a public place for a drink first. That way you can assess if you fancy them in the flesh/they are not a twitchy-eyed freakazoid before letting them into your house.”

Page 171 "If you are also a boy, you are probably aware of which parts FEEL NICE when you touch them, but here's a rough guide. The lips: Sex should always start with a kiss. Initially, you might not go any further than a kiss, in fact. Kissing is as intimate as sex, and if you're not comfortable going further than a kiss, a good partner will respect this and wait. Nipples: A lot of guys like having their nipples played with- they are mega sensitive. Testicles: Also to be treated with loving care. Bum: Up you bum you have a prostate gland which feels nice when massaged. The anus is also sensitive and responds to being played with. Neck/ears: These sensitive areas love being kissed and licked. Skin: Any part of your body will respond to being stroked and kissed. Penis: If you are a guy, you'll already know that even a gentle breeze can be enough to inspire a stiffy in this super-sensitive organ. But keep in mind that sex doesn't begin and end with your dick. Be creative."

"2. Blowis: Oral sex is popping another dude's peen in your mouth, or, indeed, popping yours in his. There is only one hard and fast rule when it comes to blow jobs- WATCH THE TEETH. Lips and tongue, yes; teeth, NO.

As with hand jobs and breakfast eggs, all men like their blow jobs served in different ways. The term "blow job" is massively misleading, as you won't actually be blowing on his penis- it's more about sucking (although I stress you're not trying to suck his kidneys out through his urethra). It's more about sliding your mouth up and down the shaft of his cock.

Letting a guy cum in your mouth is a safe sex no-no."

"IF THEY COME AT YOU WITH "IT'S IN THE BIBLE!"

...Point out that the text was written thousands of years ago. Times have changed. The messages are still somewhat applicable, but we have to adapt them for modern living. Also point out that ALL of the above extracts are out of context, and at the end of the day, they are stories, no laws (even the Apostle Paul decreed this).

Contexts change. The Bible repeatedly refers to going after taxmen- who at the time were crooked. You don't hear about Christians chasing after the IRS with flaming torches, do you?

Also, lady lovers, as the problem all stems from "sodomy," lesbians are automatically off the hook anyway! Whoop! Finally, in the New Testament, based on the teachings of Jesus, Jesus said precisely NOTHING on the subject. ...Personally, I think Jesus, had he lived today, would be at a every Pride march."

Here is a diagram of a boy. If you are also a boy, you are probably aware which parts FEEL NICE when you touch them, but here's a rough guide.

The lips should always start with a kiss, but you might not go any further than a kiss, in fact. Kissing is as intimate as sex, and if you're not comfortable going further than a kiss, a good partner will respect this and wait.

Part Two: Girl-on-Girl Sex

Here is a diagram of a woman. If you are also a woman, you are probably aware which parts FEEL NICE when you touch them, but here's a rough guide.

Clitoris: Observe the diagram. Women are the little bit harder than men, who have everything dangling out in the open. The clitoris is a super-sensitive cluster of nerve endings that, when rubbed, kissed, or licked, can make a woman orgasm (which is a good thing).

Anus: Although women do not have a prostate gland up their butt, most women like having their prostate up their butt.

Lips: Sex should always start with a kiss. Initially, you might not go any further than a kiss, in fact. Kissing is as intimate as sex, and if you're not comfortable going further than a kiss, a good partner will respect this and wait.

Nipples: These nipples are hard to bring around and lick.

Nipples: A lot of girls like having their nipples played with- they are mega sensitive.

About:

Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic is a 2006 graphic memoir by the American cartoonist Alison Bechdel, author of the comic strip Dykes to Watch Out For. It chronicles the author's childhood and youth in rural Pennsylvania, United States, focusing on her complex relationship with her father. The book addresses themes of sexual orientation, gender roles, suicide, emotional abuse, dysfunctional family life, and the role of literature in understanding oneself and one's family

‘I’m gonna take your pants off now,’ Alex tells him... He moves his lips down Henry’s chest, and he feels under his mouth the beat Henry’s heart skips at the realization of what Henry intends. He kisses Henry’s solar plexus, his stomach, the stretch of skin above his waistband. ‘I’ve uh I’ve never done this before... I just need you to tell me if I’m awful.’
