Powerhouse Organization Moms for Liberty Launches

New Chapter in Shelby County

Shelby County, TN- Grassroots organization Moms for Liberty has announced the launch of a new, local chapter in Shelby County, TN as the latest addition in their impressive and growing list of chapters. Now established in 33 states, Moms for Liberty has organized 165 local chapters since its inception in January of 2021.

Parents have felt increasingly frustrated and concerned by the actions of their local government and school districts. Moms for Liberty helps these concerned parents organize and amplify their voices to achieve the most important of goals: results. Parents, grandparents, educators, and community members are joining the organization in droves to exercise their rights while defending and shaping liberty in local government.

"There are many parents that are frustrated at the situation but feel that they are powerless to fight back. Parents know what is best for their children. I will not surrender my children and their futures to the whims of elected leaders and their misplaced priorities. Moms for Liberty is an organization that equips parents to defend their parental rights at all levels of government. It is exactly what is needed "for such a time as this" (Esther 4:14)." (Jenni Martin, Chapter Chair of Shelby County, TN of Moms for Liberty)

Parents demand a seat at the table as they defend their boundaries and rights in education. Moms for Liberty does not shy away from government intimidation tactics as they engage elected officials on key issues that impact the everyday lives of families.

The organization works to empower parents and they are committed to holding elected leaders accountable while also focusing on preserving crucial, founding principles of our nation: limited government, personal responsibility, and individual liberty.

Moms for Liberty has already been successful in achieving results in their growing movement that is sweeping across the nation while working to recapture the rights that many parents feel are under constant attack.

The Shelby County Chapter of Moms for Liberty will host their first meeting on March 1st, 6-8 pm at the Germantown Community Library located at 1925 Exeter Road, Germantown, TN. 38138.
